* Honorable Hogan Allen and wife, Frances Rushing, moved from Anson County, North Carolina to Arkansas in 1851 and settled in Drew County, near Lacey. They remained there until 1860 when they moved to Ashley County, locating at Berea, in Bearhouse Township where they remained until his death in 1899. Hogan Allen was one of the "brushbreakers" or pioneer preachers of Ashley County. Six years before he came to Ashley County, Bro. N.C. Denson, in the Spring of 1846, organized Fellowship Baptist Church at Snyder. During the early years, and until 1856, a pastor was called and served only for the associational year. Consequently, many able and noble men served as pastor. Bro. Hogan Allen was an exception as he served the church from 1884 through 1890. He returned and served as pastor until shortly before his death in 1899. He was buried in Mt Olive Cemetery, Berea. He was a farmer all of his life and was a Council Mason and was a man of sound practical judgment. His intelligence and super and he was elected to represent the County in the legislature four terms. In 1860 he was in the 1st District of Arkansas, composed of Ashley and Drew Counties.
